Amongst a premier clutch of modern homes on the Mount's outskirts of rolling hills in The Summit Estate, comes the established quality you dream of finding as a young growing brood?

Bypass brand-new for a solar-boosted, 2010 contemporary design that'll entice with its 4-bedroom floorplan flow, softly hued interiors, 3 living areas, new carpets, impeccably kept gardens, and alfresco entertaining - just in time for Christmas.

A light invasion follows you at every turn - along with floating timber-look floors - past the master suite with his and hers walk-in robes, a sparkling ensuite, and plantation shutters filtering the glow.

And from the plush formal living room that can alter its ego
