Emerging like a butterfly from a basic '80s cocoon, the 3-bedder may appear petite on its freshly reborn 615sqm allotment, but its transformation is monumental.

And that 'new home glow' begins right from the new entry porch.

Next, removing the living-to-kitchen wall was ingenious, and all part of the home's open plan new plan - so too the combustion fire warmth, split system comfort, and the recurrence of veejay panelling, timber-look floors, downlighting, designer tiles, and shaker-style joinery.

Clear driveway access to a 6m x 6m garage also plans to impress the investor, downsizer or first-time buyer.
