As the private driveway meanders past towering gums to this quiet revelation, it's clear that as magical as the borrowed views and golden sunrises are, this family nest goes out on a limb for lifestyle.

Settling into the contours of its 2.1-acre parcel, this 1980s home relishes a northerly aspect, an enveloping entertainer's deck, four bedrooms, dual living zones, enormous shedding, and a balancing, double-bay window lounge imploring you to waste hours here.

It leads with an earthy feel from accent leadlight, exposed brickwork, polished timber floors and warm hues; and warmed by sunlight, you'll watch livestock from the contemporary kitchen beside a Smeg wall oven, electric
