In a spot as quiet as they come, facing Camac Reserve, follow the fragrant gardens to an immaculate three-bedroom home that whispers an enticing "come and get it" to the garden lover or growing family.

Cherished from the ground up, this 1980s build - with updated roofing, pet-friendly new fencing, and a carefully curated 690sqm allotment - will further thrill buyers with a gleaming kitchen remodel, dual living zones, and drive-through carport access to a double garage.

Through the brand-new front door, durable laminate floors keep things neutral underfoot. Big garden-facing windows in the master bedroom and leading lounge are gifts from the '80s, while the opened and overhauled kitchen is pure
